

Dear Community Partner,

The Michigan Association for Play Therapy (MIAPT) invites you to participate in promoting your business at our annual Conference on February 28-29, 2020, which will be held in Lansing, Michigan. Scott Riviere, LPC, RPT-S, will be presenting on The Playful Parent: Engaging Parents in Play Therapy and Creative Interventions for the Challenging Child: A Play Therapy Approach.

This conference has an expected attendance of 150-175 professionals with a passion for play therapy! Your donation will provide exposure for your company's products or services to participants from the state of Michigan as well as surrounding states!

The purpose of MIAPT is to provide a forum for the discussion of play therapy principles, practices, and advocacy. Through play therapy, children learn to communicate with others, express feelings, modify behavior, develop problem solving skills, and learn a variety of ways to build relationships.

Research supports the effectiveness of play therapy with children experiencing a wide variety of social, emotional, behavioral, and learning problems, including: children whose problems are related to life stressors, such as divorce, death, relocation, hospitalization, chronic illness, assimilate stressful experiences, physical and sexual abuse, domestic violence, and natural disasters (Bratton, Ray, Rhine, & Jones, 2005; LeBlanc & Ritchie, 2001; Lin & Bratton, 2015; Ray, Armstrong, Balkin, & Jayne, 2015; Reddy, Files-Hall, & Schaefer, 2005).

Please consider donating to the MIAPT conference and supporting our association.

Sincerely,

Shana Bombrys, MSW, LMSW, CADC, ADS
MIAPT President
